

Teresa Fox, MS, ATC, LAT – Head Athletic Trainer

Teresa Fox is the Head Athletic Trainer at Tennessee Wesleyan College. She also serves as an adjunct instructor in the TWC Exercise and Sport Sciences Department. Prior to coming to TWC she was an Assistant Athletic Trainer at Mount Olive College. While there she covered men's soccer, softball, basketball and men's volleyball. She earned her Masters of Science in Athletic Training from the University of Northern Iowa in 2006 and her Bachelor of Arts in Exercise Science from Central College in 2002. Ms. Fox is originally from Iowa.

James A. German (Drew), ATC, LAT-Assistant Athletic Trainer

Drew German was hired in September of 2009 as the Assistant Athletic Trainer. Prior to Tennessee Wesleyan he was an athletic trainer for Benchmark Physical Therapy. His coverage areas were Cleveland State Community College and Polk County High School. While at both schools he covered a variety of sports including football, basketball, baseball and softball. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association and holds a licensure in the state of Tennessee. Drew earned his Bachelors of Education in Athletic Training in May of 2008 from Lee University and his Associates of Education in May of 2005 from Cleveland State Community College. He has also completed the Emergency Medical Training Program at Cleveland State. In addition to his duties as Assistant Athletic Trainer, he also serves as the athletic trainer for Polk County High School in his free time.

Donny Mayfield, MS, ATC, LAT – Director of Athletics, Associate Head Athletic Trainer

Donny Mayfield serves as an Associate Head Athletic Trainer at Tennessee Wesleyan College. Donny joined the TWC athletic staff in 1998 as Head Athletic Trainer but was promoted in Fall of 2007 to Director of Athletics. Donny completed his graduate work at the University of Kentucky ('99), where he served as graduate assistant to Cross Country, Track and Field, and Women's Soccer. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association and holds licensure in the state of Tennessee., he is also a graduate of Valdosta State University ('97) with a Bachelors of Science in Sports Medicine. In addition to his duties as Associate Head Athletic Trainer, he also serves as the Director of Athletics and is an Assistant Professor for the TWC Exercise and Sports Sciences Department. Originally he is from Concord, Georgia and he enjoys watching UGA football, golfing, and spending time with his family.

Samuel J. Olsen II, MD – Internal Medicine and Sports Medicine Specialist

Dr. Olsen grew up in Dayton, TN and went on to Cedarville University to study biology. He graduated in the top 10% of his medical school class at East Tennessee State University. He did his internal medicine residency at the University of Virginia at Roanoke, and then completed his sports medicine fellowship at the American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Alabama. While there he worked with Birmingham Southern College Athletics. His research interest primarily is in injury prevention for baseball players. He now practices general medicine and sports medicine in Etowah, TN and has been working as part of the TWC sports medicine staff since 2005.