Naomi Clarke

Head Coach

Naomi Clarke enters her sixth year as head coach of the Tennessee Wesleyan women's soccer program. In the 2010-11 season, Clarke guided the team to a 12-7-1 overall record and a 5-1 conference record in the Appalachian Athletic Conference.

Finishing tied for 1st place in AAC regular season standings, Clarke took the Lady Bulldogs into the AAC tournament for her 5th straight year, where they slid past Reinhardt University in the 2nd round semifinal by way of penalty shootout, and then trumped Milligan College 1-0 in the AAC tournament final to win the tournament championship outright. With the AAC tournament title behind them, the Lady Bulldogs went on to play NAIA nationally ranked #2 Lee University in the opening round of the NAIA National Tournament where they were beaten 7-0 by the 3-time NAIA National Champs.

Overall, Clarke has lead Tennessee Wesleyan Women's Soccer to a 44-43-2 record and 20-14-1 AAC conference record. In her five years here, Clarke has coached nineteen (19) TWC players named to AAC Conference Teams, three (3) players named to NAIA Region XII teams, one (1) NSCAA Honorable All American selection, and one (1) NCSAA All American selection.

Clarke, originally from New Zealand, came to Tennessee Wesleyan in 2006 following a two year stint as assistant women's coach at the University of North Alabama where she also completed a Master's degree in Health Promotion and Human Performance. Prior to coaching college soccer, Clarke played at the NCAA Division II level at Lock Haven University of PA (2000-2002), and the Metropolitan State College of Denver (2003-2004) where she graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Human Performance and Sport emphasizing Teaching K-12 Physical Education. During her playing career Clarke earned the honor of being named an NSCAA All-American selection all four years of her college career (2000-2003) as well as both 1st Team Regional and 1st Team Conference selections each year. Clarke also has national team caps under her belt with representation on the New Zealand Senior Women's National Team.

Clarke co-founded and is the Assistant Director of Coaching at local soccer club McMinn United FC and has also previously coached for elite clubs out of the Nashville, TN and Denver, CO areas. Clarke is also a soccer camp veteran coach having coached and directed with Joe Machnik's No.1 Soccer Camps since 2002 and Coerver Coaching since 2005, as well as various college camps since 2006. Clarke currently works with the TN Olympic Development Program and teaches Exercise Science classes part-time at the college. Clarke holds her USSF National 'B' Coaching License and resides in Athens, TN.

TWC HISTORY & SETTING

First founded in 1857 as Athens female College, Tennessee Wesleyan has enjoyed an ongoing and dynamic relationship with the United Methodist Church. In the late 1860s, it became one of the first institutions of higher education in the South to admit both men and women. Over the decades, the college has endured wars, economic depressions and several name changes, but it has never lost its identity and place as an important center of learning in southeast Tennessee. In the 21st century, it continues its tradition of providing students with the resources and support they need to grow into themselves and their future success.

Tennessee Wesleyan is especially proud of the commitment its coaches and athletes make to achieving excellence in the classroom. The college believes that student-athletes are students first and athletes second. A winning season and trip to a national championship make wonderful memories, but athletes' educations and future successes comes first. Tennessee Wesleyan's coaches and athletic department make every effort to provide the college's athletes with the resources needed to succeed academically.

The College's dedication to athletics is based on the belief that sports are a vital part of a comprehensive education and that athletic participation and competition teach important life lessons such as cooperation, dedication, leadership, discipline and respect that enhance an athlete's education and future success.
